What's Up With Mental Health?

We are truly fortunate this month to have the privilege of hearing Mrs. Virginia Barr speak to us about the state of mental health in Okaloosa County. Hopefully I won't be stealing her thunder; however, mental health is a growing concern as 1 in 5 American adults have a mental health condition. According to Mental Health America, Florida ranked 33rd in prevalence of mental illness and lower rates of access to care.

On a personal note, Virginia is a military brat. Her father served in the Air Force and retired out of Tyndall, AFB as a CMSgt. Virginia's husband was also in the Air Force, and served in Vietnam. He received OV-10 training at Hurlburt.

Virginia Glynn Barr, Academy of Certified Social Workers, is the Executive Director of the Mental Health Association of Okaloosa and Walton Counties. She earned her degree, from the University of West Florida, and received her master's degree in Social Work Administration.

Mrs. Barr, a clinical social worker, worked with persons experiencing severe and persistent mental illness in the state hospitals of Alabama and Florida prior to accepting a position with the Okaloosa Guidance Clinic, (now Bridgeway Center) as the director of Emergency Services designed, developed, and directed a Geriatric Residential Treatment Facility located in Crestview, FL.

She was inducted to the Okaloosa County Women's Hall of Fame, served as a past president of the Junior League, was elected President of the University of West Florida National Alumni Association, and was selected for

MILITARY BALL ORDER FORM INSIDE

From the President's Pen

By Scott Berry

Greetings!

As I write this we are in the outer circles of the bull's eye of Hurricane Michael's landfall. In preparation for that, one of our cars is enjoying the enviable luxury of being in our garage—you know, it's that large room we use for additional storage in Florida that people up north use to park their cars? If there is any silver lining on Michael, it's that we cleaned out part of our garage, swept the floor, and placed in recycling a mountain of Amazon Prime delivery boxes we'd accumulated over time "just in case we need to mail something." The typically almost empty recycle bin is now full of cardboard, and we have empty floor space in the garage!

Scott Berry

I will miss the next meeting, which I think is only about the second time that's happened since I became president. Nick Marotta has graciously agreed to stand in for me. I'll be in Phoenix, AZ, for the annual MOAA convention. Part of the enjoyment at that event will be accepting our Chapters' Five Star Level of Excellence Award. Many of you have heard me say at the monthly meetings that a five star award is a REALLY big deal. It reflects a lot of hard work by many people in the chapter.

The board will announce the election slate for the 2019 officers at the next meeting. I encourage you to consider being one of those nominees. I've been a board member almost since I first joined the chapter and found it very rewarding. Bottle washer is about the only duty I haven't had!

New Dental and Vision Plan

Effective Jan. 1, 2019 the TRICARE Retiree Dental Plan (TRDP) will cease to exist, and will be replaced by the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP).

OPEN SEASON TO SELECT A NEW PLAN IS 12 Nov 18 - 10 Dec 18

Dental Programs

FEDVIP has a total of 10 different dental plans to choose from, depending on your location. Plans can be found at <https://tricare.benefeds.com>

Most plans offer a standard or high level benefit. The high level plan usually has a lower co-pay for covered services, more covered services, and a higher monthly premium. All plans also offer 3 different types of family coverage (Self, Self plus 1, and Family)

Coverage

Unlike TRDP, many FEDVIP dental plans have no deductible, the amount you must pay out-of-pocket before insurance kicks in. While TRDP also has a maximum payout of $1,300 per person each year, FEDVIP usually has a higher maximum and some plans have no limits.

And if you need a filling you would pay 20 percent of the cost under TRDP, under FEDVIP you normally pay nothing if using a network dentist.

If you need crowns, dentures, or braces the coverage is similar under both plans. Some plans normally require you to be enrolled for 12 months before they will pay for orthodontics. When switching from TRDP to FEDVIP make sure you pick a plan with no waiting period if you want that treatment covered immediately.

Premiums

Like TRDP, the FEDVIP dental plans have different costs depending on where you live. In the 32578 zip code, monthly premiums range from $19.87 - $39.41 for and individual to $59.63 - $139.21 for family coverage.

Vision Programs

The existing TRICARE benefit of one eye exam each year is not going away. This new vision plan is voluntary, and allows you to get expanded vision coverage.

FEDVIP has a total of 4 different dental plans to choose from, depending on your location. Plans can be found at <https://tricare.benefeds.com>

Each plan offers a standard or high level benefit. The high level plan usually has a lower copay for covered services, and a higher monthly premium. All plans also offer 3 different flavors of family coverage (Individual, Self plus 1, and Family)

Premiums

Monthly premiums range from $6.70 to $14.43 for self only to $19.46 to $43.38 for family coverage.

Coverage

All plans give you one eye exam, and a pair of glasses or supply of contact lenses each year. The participating eye doctors and retailers vary by plan, as do the copayments and the quantity of contact lenses or types of glasses you are able to purchase.

To find out more go to: <https://tricare.benefeds.com> Here you can check out and compare all the plans based on your zip code. This will take time to sort through all the information. While many plans appear the same at first glance you may notice that your favorite dentist isn't available under one, or another plan may not pay for the contact lenses your daughter prefers.

Many people in the chapter have been very responsive in suggesting speakers for our monthly meeting, and it is definitely appreciated. Because of your recommendations we've had a variety of speakers we didn't enjoy before. Dr Della Scott-Ireton gave a fantastic presentation which was certainly "out of the box" for our normal speakers, and she was a great suggestion from a chapter member. And I have a couple more up my sleeve for next year.

I continue to emphasize the need for recruitment. My goal is to have 300 members by the first of the year. That's easily attainable. The board has had great success in offering to treat a prospective member to lunch as a recruiting tool. I brought a good friend last month and it worked, and I think we'll see some great future involvement by him. So please don't be shy about asking your neighbors (Dick Solt is superb at this) and those you drink beer with.

THANKSGIVING REFLECTIONS

Oh how fortunate and blessed we are to be still alive and living in the USA. I often feel spurred on to contemplate 'Gratitude' so I will encourage you to find a little time in a quiet place to begin your "Gratitude List." Here's Mary and Tom's partial list:

- ❖ Born healthy and in a freedom loving democratic country
- ❖ Parents who walked the talk of spiritual and moral values
- ❖ Siblings and children who continue to show their support and love
- ❖ The wisdom to answer the call for both of us to serve on active duty in the Air Force
- ❖ Educators who gave us tools to learn and contribute to America
- ❖ A heavenly calling to be conduits to listen, guide and love others God puts in our life
- ❖ Good health to exercise, travel and assist the less fortunate
- ❖ A warm home with running water, electricity and unlimited technology
- ❖ The gift of a meaningful and loving marriage
- ❖ Church families throughout our spiritual pilgrimage to pray and act with in truth and love
- ❖ Simple Adirondack family camp for rest, rejuvenation and renewing friendships
- ❖ AFEV widows who are a daily reminder of their long support as dedicated military spouses
- ❖ Brain cells to teach, preach, counsel and the will to write articles and books
- ❖ The gift of daily laughter
- ❖ Being role models for others now till the day God calls me home
- ❖ Living in a country with beautiful state and national parks we can explore
- ❖ Our evolution from a kindergarten religion to a contemplative faith in action
- ❖ Myriad good books to read and reflect upon for growth and guidance

- ❖ Witnessing the Trinity's miraculous work in the lives of neighbors, friends and family
- ❖ Parents that lived into their 90's so we could reconnect and thank for their love
- ❖ Uncles, aunts and cousins who fought in wars, survived and encouraged us to take the solemn vow
- ❖ The heroes who impacted our life and the wisdom to be a hero to others
- ❖ Communing and appreciating God's peace in our heart, mind and soul

Well, we pray you get the drift...now go and do likewise; and if possible encourage others to make Thanksgiving not just a one day holiday but a forever attitude and experience.

You have to make a decision soon though. You can only sign up for both dental and vision insurance during the open season timeframe which lasts from 12 Nov to 10 Dec. After that you are pretty much stuck in your decision until next year's open season.

Marine Corps Fun Facts

1. The phrase, “a few good men” originated in 1779 when Captain William Jones of the Continental Marines placed a recruiting ad in the Providence Gazette stating, “The Continental ship Providence, now lying at Boston, is bound on a short cruise, immediately; a few good men are wanted to make up her complement.”
2. The title of honorary Marine, can only be bestowed by the Commandant of the Marine Corps. Some of the most notable people awarded this title are Chuck Norris, Bob Hope, and Gary Sinise.
3. Legend has it, Tun Tavern in Philadelphia is considered the birthplace of the Marine Corps. Captains Robert Mullan and Samuel Nicholas recruited potential Marines by buying them beer and telling stories of adventures at sea.

Marine Corps Hymn “Marines’ Hymn”

From the Halls of Montezuma
To the shores of Tripoli;
We fight our country’s battles
In the air, on land, and sea;
First to fight for right and freedom
And to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to claim the title
Of United States Marine.

Our flag’s unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun;
We have fought in every clime and place
Where we could take a gun;
In the snow of far-off Northern lands
And in sunny tropic scenes,
You will find us always on the job
The United States Marines.

Here’s health to you and to our Corps
Which we are proud to serve;
In many a strife we’ve fought for life
And never lost our nerve.
If the Army and the Navy
Ever look on Heaven’s scenes,
They will find the streets are guarded
By United States Marines.

Comedy Corner

(in honor of the Marine Corps’ Birthday)
